A WEEKEND TO IMMERSE YOURSELF IN ART

city artists at work

A CITY ARTISTS AT WORK EVENT
OCTOBER 28TH-30TH 2011

All exhibited work selected by Mark Cole, Associate Curator of American Painting and Sculpture at the Cleveland Museum of Art.

Honorary Chairs: Bill & Mary Beckenbach

City Artists At Work (CAAW), a collaboration of artists from the Quadrangle, Midtown Corridor, and St. Clair Superior art districts, is proud to announce our fourteenth anniversary. To celebrate, we're offering you a chance to witness the work of some of Cleveland's finest artists, and to create some memorable art of your own.

Don't miss your chance to spend a weekend truly immersing yourself in art. For more information about City Artists At Work (CAAW) or our three-day See Art/Create Art event, visit www.cityartistsatwork.org or email wmjean@aol.com

SEE ART

Fine Art Exhibition

Friday, October 28
6:30 p.m. – 10 p.m.
Convivium33 Gallery
1433 East 33rd Street

Opening our three-day event is a must-see exhibition at Convivium33 Gallery—the former St. Josaphat Roman Catholic Church.

The exhibit, which will remain on display through November 20th, features an eclectic collection of paintings, sculpture, photography, ceramics, and more from over 60 local artists.

The exhibition features opening night remarks from Cleveland Museum Of Art Associate Curator, Mark Cole. Also enjoy live music, and refreshments provided by High Thai'd restaurant on Coventry.

Free and open to the public.

CREATE ART

Workshops

Now it's your turn to get your creative juices flowing. Saturday and Sunday feature a variety of hands-on workshops at select area studios. From painting to mask making, printing and more, they're your opportunity to create you own art under the guiding eyes of highly acclaimed CAAW artists. All for a nominal fee.

AN INTRODUCTION TO ACRYLIC PAINTING WORKSHOP

Saturday, October 29
11:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
The ArtCraft Building
2570 Superior Ave. – 6th Floor

Instructors: Wally Kaplan & Rita Schuenemann

Learn the essential skills needed to paint a Still Life subject on canvas using acrylic paints. Emphasis is placed on using brush strokes to build form and convey a sense of space, and to see and paint visual relationships.

Fee: $25
All supplies and a light lunch are included.
Class size limited to 12.

CLAY MASK WORKSHOP

Saturday, October 29
11:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
The ArtCraft Building
2570 Superior Ave., 6th Floor

*Instructors: Artists from the ArtCraft Building
Ceramic Studio and TerraVista Ceramic
Studio*

The mask has been around for centuries, used in all cultures for celebration, storytelling, and rituals. Experience first-hand the process of making this well-established art form from earthenware clay.

Fee: $25
Includes all materials
Class size limited to 15 adults

A TRIO OF MONOTYPE WORKSHOPS

Noon – 4:30 p.m.
Sunday October 30
Heller Building
2218 Superior Avenue – 3rd Floor

Workshop I with Susan Squires
Noon until 1:30 p.m.

Using the Vandercook Press, students will experiment with monoprinting using watercolor and stencils on an acrylic plate. Participants will create at least four prints which can be a final product or can be used in Workshop III to create a more finished statement.

Workshop II with Mindy Tousley
1:30 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Primary focus is on printing by hand using acrylic paint on a variety of papers. Emphasis is placed on making textural papers, which can be cut apart and reassembled into a completed composition.

*Workshop III – Collaborative Collage
Workshop with William Martin Jean,
Mindy Tousley and Susan Squires*
3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Using some of the prints created in the previous workshops, participants will create a larger finished work with addition of stamps and other textural material.

The Trio of Workshops will have participants displaying their work in the hall gallery. Light refreshments and conversation to follow.

Fee: $50
All supplies are included.
Class sized limited to 8 adults (18 and over)
Note: A Single Workshop Fee is $25.

CREATIVE CARD DESIGN WORKSHOP

Sunday, October 30
Noon - 1:30 p.m.
Heller Building, 2218 Superior Avenue

Instructor: William Martin Jean

Every year, for over 30 years, the artist has created 300 personalized holiday greetings that are cherished by the recipients. You will learn how to create a personalized design that your friends will be delighted to receive, as well. Each participant will create six unique cards to take home, complete with envelope.

Fee: $25
All materials are included.
Class size limited to 10 adults (18 or over )
